

We'd really appreciate your help getting out information on the election and what's on the ballot. Here are some ways you can help elevate Governor Polis' campaign and work to get out the vote this cycle:

Record a short, direct-to-camera video.

This is a super easy 15-30 second, front-camera video giving your commendation of Governor Polis. This can be a general approval of the Governor's policies, or it can focus on an issue important to you and the campaign, or simply encouraging folks to turn out to the polls.

Be an email signer.

Email is an easy way for us to reach thousands of supporters, so having your signoff on them is not only easy, but great for elevating our messaging!

Post on social.

Posting a commendation and tagging Governor Polis on your social accounts is a great way to increase engagement with the campaign and the election. This can surround a central issue or be a general endorsement.

Let's do an Instagram or Facebook Live, Twitter Spaces.

Interested in a conversation with Governor Polis about issues that matter to you? A live on your optimal platform/audience is just the tool to elevate issues pertinent to you, your followers, and the campaign.

How about a photo opportunity?

Are you in Colorado? Great! We'd love to get a picture together! Posting photos on social is a great way to increase visibility for the campaign, and it's a fun opportunity.

Join a volunteer organizing call.

A great way to get more volunteers amped and on board with working on the campaign.

Thank you for showing solidarity with the campaign. We so appreciate your support.
